

Corporate History

From our foundation to the present, we have continued to make progress while taking on the challenge of industrial waste.

July 1973	Matsuzawa Hirozo established "Matsumon Transport Co., Ltd."; Capital 4 million yen; Started transportation business
May 1977	Acquired industrial waste collection and transportation business license (including transshipment storage) in Saitama Prefecture
August 1983	Acquired industrial waste collection and transportation business license in Gunma Prefecture
November 1984	Changed company name to "Shomon Co., Ltd."; Increased capital to 10 million yen
September 1989	Acquired industrial waste collection and transportation business licenses in Tochigi and Chiba Prefectures
November 1989	Acquired industrial waste collection and transportation business licenses in Fukushima Prefecture and Iwaki City
April 1990	Obtained industrial waste collection and transportation business license in Tokyo
June 1990	Acquired industrial waste disposal business license in Saitama Prefecture
September 1990	Acquired industrial waste collection and transportation business license in Niigata Prefecture
January 1991	Established Hanamizuki Factory (incineration/managed stockyard facility)
June 1992	Established Satsuki Factory (crushing/crushing volume reduction facility)
June 1992	Acquired industrial waste collection and transportation business license in Ibaraki Prefecture
July 1993	Acquired permission for specially controlled industrial waste collection and transportation business in Saitama Prefecture; Acquired permission for specially controlled industrial waste disposal business in Saitama Prefecture
August 1993	Acquired specially controlled industrial waste collection and transportation business licenses in Chiba and Ibaraki Prefectures
November 1993	Acquired specially controlled industrial waste collection and transportation business licenses in Tochigi Prefecture and Tokyo
November 1994	Acquired industrial waste disposal business license in Tochigi Prefecture
June 1996	Acquired industrial waste collection and transportation business license in Miyagi Prefecture
May 1997	Established stable final disposal site in Nasu, Tochigi Prefecture
August 2002	Established Sunflower Factory
July 2003	Established Sakura Factory
October 2003	Acquired industrial waste collection and transportation business license in Nagano Prefecture
April 2004	Acquired industrial waste collection and transportation business license in Kanagawa Prefecture
November 2004	Acquired ISO9001 certification for Sunflower Factory
May 2006	Acquired ISO14001 certification for Sales Department and Sunflower Factory
January 2007	Acquired industrial waste collection and transportation business license in Shizuoka Prefecture
January 2010	Acquired specially controlled industrial waste collection and transportation business license in Gunma Prefecture and Iwaki City
December 2012	Closed stable final disposal site in Nasu, Tochigi Prefecture (closed due to completion of planned quantity)
March 2015	Acquired excellence accreditation for industrial waste collection and transportation business and disposal business in Saitama Prefecture
April 2015	Acquired permission for specially controlled industrial waste collection and transportation business in Kanagawa Prefecture

※Inside Sunflower Factory

※Inside Sakura Factory

Corporate History

We will continue to take a new step in the history of industrial waste treatment.

- | | |
|-----------------------|--|
| May 2015 | Mission Land installation; Change of permission for industrial waste collection and transportation and disposal business in Saitama Prefecture |
| July 2015 | Hanamizuki Factory suspended (suspended due to the establishment of Mission Land in May 2015) |
| August 2015 | Received excellence accreditation for industrial waste collection and transportation in Gunma Prefecture |
| October 2015 | Received excellence accreditation for industrial waste collection and transportation in Niigata Prefecture |
| November 2015 | Mission Land receives designation as a Sai-no-Kuni Plant |
| March 2016 | Received excellence accreditation as an industrial waste collection and transportation company in Fukushima Prefecture |
| June 2016 | Toshiya Matsuzawa is appointed president |
| June 2016 | Received excellence accreditation as an industrial waste collection and transportation business in Miyagi Prefecture |
| December 2016 | Acquired industrial waste collection and transportation business license in Yamanashi Prefecture; Acquired permission for specially controlled industrial waste collection and transportation business |
| September 2018 | Established Mission Land office building; Relocated head office functions |

※Mission Land entrance